

As a rural radio listener, I appreciate and strongly support local ownership of radio stations. I believe that at least 50% of stations in every market should be independent and locally-owned.

John Kucera